Re: A & J Produce Corp. v. Dr Produce, LLC d/b/a Sycamore Foods NJ;
Case No. 21-cv-6066 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

We are the attorneys for A & J Produce Corp., Mendez International Tropical Foods Inc. and Top Banana LLC (collectively, "Plaintiffs") in the above-referenced action. Earlier today I inadvertently filed at Docket No. 86-1 an unredacted copy of a document that should have been redacted. I have spoken with the Clerk's office and the document has been temporarily sealed. I have been informed that I am now required to file a formal application to seal the document. Kindly treat this submission as a letter motion to seal Docket No. 86-1. The document sought to be sealed is the PACA Proof of Claim mailed to me by L&T Food Distributor Inc. t/a My Vo Produce. Included with the proof of claim is a portion of a credit application which includes a social security number and a check which references a bank account number. I had intended to file redacted copies of those documents, but due to a clerical error the non-redacted copies were filed. Sealing the document will not prejudice any party, since the objection only affects My Vo Produce, and that entity should be fully familiar with the documents it attached to its PACA Proof of Claim.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
McCarron & Diess
